From the Superintendent

Irrigation

With the addition of the new well last summer, an abundance of water is available for irrigation. Normal irrigation cycles are run during the night so as not to interfere with golfers and maintenance activities; however, the hot, sunny days of summer require more water than 8 hours of night time watering can provide.

Upwards of 500,000 gallons per day are needed to provide peak soil moisture levels. This enormous amount of water can only be supplied by continuous 24 hour per day watering.

I sincerely hope you find this inconvenience minimal, knowing that it is necessary to keep our golf course green and growing.

Wes Petkau
Golf Course Superintendent

Men's Night

So far we've had good turnouts. Lots of fun and great prizes, thanks to our sponsors.

A lot of members are concerned about slow play. Slow play is ugly. If there is a hold vacant in front of you, do one of three things:

- 1) Speed up;
- 2) Allow other groups to play through;
- 3) Get off the course (. . . just a joke!)

But please watch slow play and make the game more enjoyable for everyone.

Evening Ladies Golf Club

June and July have been very busy with matches being played in the Lad Construction, Inland Gas, Captain's Cup and Cooper construction events.

Congratulations to Betty Ann Buse for qualifying for the B.C. Summer Games. Good luck in Victoria!

C.L.G.A. spoon winners to date are:

May	Betty Ann Buse
June	Marilyn Chappell
July	Ruth Chambers

Ten Prince George ladies travelled to Jasper to play in their Ladies Tournament and had a great time. Sheri Senum won Low Gross honors with an 82. Congratulations, Sheri!

Day Ladies Golf

One of our favorite events was held on June 28th. The Margaret Morgan Tournament. We had the privilege of having Margaret attend the luncheon following the golf.

The winner of this event was Bev Weldon, with the Runner-up Jean Shortt.

During Junior Golf Week the winners of the "Beat the Champ" were:

Vi Calynuik
Barb Guest
Sarah Frey

Spoon Winners: June
July

Mary Foreman
Rosemarie Litnosky

Honorary Members
Tournament: Medalist

Rosemarie Litnosky

On July 11th, ten members of the Ladies Clubs competed in the Jasper Ladies Tournament. We were fortunate to have the winner from the Prince George Club. Congratulations to Sheri Senum. We all want your Jasper Bear!!!

See you all at the LADIES SIMON FRASER.

Labatt's Tournament

The 14th Annual Labatt's Two Ball Best Ball Tournament will be played September 4th and 5th, 1988.

Same format as last year, maximum seven stroke difference between partners. Entry fee is $30.00 per player. Prizes are worth $1,500.00.

Barbeque - Saturday evening, September 3rd at 7:00 p.m.
Guest tickets for the barbeque will be $12.00 each. Entry deadline for the tournament is September 2nd (limit of 200 entries).

Come along and enjoy yourself. It should be as good as ever.

Ken Becott Memorial Left Handers' Tournament

The Ken Becott Memorial Left Handers' Tournament was held on Sunday, July 10, 1988 with 39 golfers from Prince George, Fraser Lake, Vanderhoof, Fort St. James, Quesnel, Mackenzie and Dawson Creek. Once again a good time was had by all.

There were 11 more golfers than last year but we know there are still many more to enter next year. Our special thanks to College Heights Pub for their sponsorship. The money added enabled a much wider distribution of prizes. Mrs. Monica Becott was present to distribute the prizes and in particular to present the Ken Becott Memorial Trophy to the Low Net Winner.

Prize Winners were as follows:

Low Gross

1. Ian Coudner
2. Tom Carson
3. Doug Elliot

Low Net

1. Jake LeBlanc
2. Rick Sambad
3. Raymond Caillier

Calloway

1. Lorne Bryer
2. Jim Miller
3. Erling Skuggedal

| Hole # 3 | Cliff Haiste |
| 5 | Bernie Pratt |
| 10 | Wayne Petite |
| 12 | John Brazil |
| 14 | no winner |

Jens Ingstrup from Quesnel donated a #8 wood, won in a draw by Tom Carson. Don MacQuarrie won a putter donated by Cliff Haiste.

Plans are already underway for next year's Tournament. The prestige of this tournament is growing to the point where some right handers want to switch-hit, so they can enter too. So lefties, be ready for next year! This includes ladies as well. Grace Munro isn't the only lady left-hander in Prince George, although she was the only lady entered this year.

The B.C. Left Handers' Championship Tournament is being held in Victoria at Gorge Vale Golf Club August 25th & 26th. Entry forms are on the downstairs bulletin board.

From the Pro

Good golf to all of the participants in the Men's and Ladies Simon Fraser Tournaments. With our golf course in such magnificent condition, we should be hearing some very kind words from the visitors.

I will be participating in the Canadian Club Professional Championships this August at Capilano Golf & Country Club during the week between the Men's and Ladies Simon Fraser tournaments. From all the nice comments you have made about our staff this year (which I really appreciate), I am sure they can do an excellent job for you during the time I am away.

Many thanks to Husky Oil and Andy Honeyman Ltd. for sponsoring a recent Men's Night June 29th, which was also Mr. Honeyman's 75th birthday. It was also Andy and Minnie's 50th Wedding Anniversary on July 31st. Quite a year for them — congratulations!

I am planning a Pro-Am event for 1989 and hope to make it a two-day affair in honor of the Prince George Golf & Curling Club's 40th anniversary. For anyone who would like to participate in it, either as a volunteer or participant, I have a file started already. We are looking for sponsorships and already have a few, thanks to John Desimone and John Blunt. I ask that you keep this in mind, as I know we will fill up fast.

Good Golfing,

Dave McGrath
